

RETIRED MEN'S ASSOCIATION OF GREENWICH, Inc. (RMA)
invites you to attend its meeting, on Wednesday, June 3, 2015
First Presbyterian Church, Lafayette Pl., Greenwich.

The song is ended, but the Melody Men linger on. You and the song are gone, but the Melody Men linger on.” Irving Berlin knew more than a thing or two about life and music and melody. Friends do not live in harmony, merely, as some say, but in melody. Heard melodies are sweet, but unheard melodies are sweeter.

Selective connoisseurs of the Great American Songbook, evergreen in their voices and in the engaging spring in their steps, the Melody Men will perform in the Great Common Room of the First Presbyterian Church in advance of their Spring 2014 tour. The Melody Men have been the choral community outreach group for the Greenwich RMA for 38 years. For the first 25 years, Bob Button was the Music Director. The group brings fun-filled choral performances to appreciative senior audiences throughout Fairfield County and beyond each spring and fall. Many of the Melody Men have been part of the group for over 20 years. This year’s spring schedule includes Edgehill, Nathaniel Witherell, the Greenwich Senior Center, Greenwich Adult Day Care, Atria Senior Centers in Rye, Darien, and Stamford, King Street Nursing Home, Greenwich Woods, Connecticut Health, and Waveny in New Canaan. In their busy schedule they always return to home base, performing for the RMA in the spring and at the Annual Fall Dinner. Of particular note, the Melody Men are becoming regulars at Citi Field, where they were asked by the Mets to sing the National Anthem last summer, and are invited back again this year.

The Melody Men are currently under the leadership of Musical Director Tom Healy, ably assisted by its Co-Business Managers, Bob Luce and Jerry Schwendeman, and long-term accompanist Valerie Cooke.

RMA Meetings are free and open to the public; no reservations are required. Please plan to arrive around 10:45 for our social break (coffee and cake), followed by our speaker at 11:00.
