Invites you to its meeting March 4, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.
First Presbyterian Church, Lafayette Place, Greenwich, CT

Amy Siebert

“Greenwich Public Works: What Does the Future Hold?”

Amy Siebert, Greenwich's Commissioner of Public Works, and some of her staff will discuss current and planned activities and issues facing her department.

The Commissioner of Public Works is responsible for all matters involved in the construction, development, and maintenance of the physical properties of the town, except for the design and maintenance of school property. The department also provides technical and engineering services to other town departments and agencies. Specifically it handles waste removal, sewers, highway maintenance, (including leaf and snow removal), permits, building inspections, building construction, maintenance, and engineering.

Amy Siebert has served as Commissioner of Greenwich's Department of Public Works since 2008 and as Deputy Commissioner since 2007, following three and a half years with the Sewer Division. She earned a Bachelor's of Science degree from Cornell University and a Master's of Science and Master's in Public Affairs from the University of Texas at Austin.

Next Week: March 11, Donna Spellman, Director of River House Adult Day Center, “Dementia Friends.”
The Greenwich Retired Men's Association offers a free program every Wednesday that is open to the public, both men and women; no reservations are required. Our social break starts at 10:40 AM followed promptly by our speaker at 11:00 a.m. Programs are at the First Presbyterian Church, 1 West Putnam in Greenwich.
