"If you have a problem with alcohol, cholesterol or protocol, you're in the wrong place"

President DON CONWAY rang the bell at 10:01am and asked for a volunteer to lead our group in the weekly songfest, and TOM HEALY stepped up.

First JOHN CARON led us in the Pledge, then TOM conducted the singing with black bandaged hand and wrist. (Looks like he was in the wrong place somewhere). We sang "Blue Skies, It's a Grand Old Flag and It's a Grand Night for Singing." JIM SANTORO accompanied on the 88s and also did the music later for our birthday boys.

BOB RUSS, our Corresponding Secretary, told a tale of stolen white powder, a bullet riddled corpse and an apologetic note about snorting "the wrong stuff".

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. DON indicated the need for more members to join the Mentor Program which seeks to help guests and candidates become familiar with the RMA. Mentoring only requires an occasional commitment during any meeting. See PETER UHRY or email him at uhry@sbcglobal.net.
2. DON also asked for a volunteer to run the ROMEO lunch. The effort is minimal: collect names, money and find a place for lunch. Any country club will take us.

TODAY'S SPEAKER

BOB PHILLIPS introduced Les de Villiers who spoke on "Gorillas in our Midst". Tracking the mountain gorillas in the Virunga Mountains of Rwanda was, in his words, "a life changing experience". Mr. de Villiers grew up in South Africa and is a graduate of its Stellenbosch University with a Doctorate in Economic History.

He said gorillas first came to the attention of the modern world in 1845 although ancient texts in 500BC refer to them as "hairy beasts". Despite their menacing size and King Kong appearance, gorillas are gentle creatures. They are family oriented with a male silverback dominating the group.

Experienced native guides took Mr. de Villiers and a small group through an exhausting mountain hike to the gorilla habitat. As they were instructed, everyone took a submissive attitude as the silverback approached within a couple of feet. Closeup photos revealed their majestic appearance.

Mountain gorillas were being slaughtered for bushmeat and only about 800 now survive. Dian Fossey's book and film "Gorillas in the Mist" brought their plight to the attention of the public. The talk was accompanied by excellent photos, videos and graphics.
