President RALPH VIGGIANO called the meeting to order almost promptly at 10:01 AM and introduced LARRY SCHMITZ to lead us in the Pledge. With PETER RYAN at the keyboard, DON CONWAY led us in singing America the Beautiful, For Me and My Gal, and Hello Dolly. Your Corresponding Secretary par excellence, ARNOLD GORDON, advised a daily pinch of gun powder in your porridge, but do not be cremated; he also extolled the amazing skills of an Australian Aborigine tracker who fell off the wagon! RALPH VIGGIANO asked the owner of a Toyota SUV to move it from its illegal spot in the lot, blocking passage; he reminded members that free parking is always in jeopardy if we do not respect the rules.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In his inimitable fashion, RALPH VIGGIANO publicly thanked several members for their faithful service to the RMA; today he gave special recognition to DON SARGEANT, TED SPOOL, DON CONWAY, HORST TEBBE, ED PARKER, and JOE MALARA. He then reminded everyone that dues must be paid by the end of this month; to date, only three-fourths of members have done so. He also asked members to consider volunteering to aid in parking-direction at the Woman's Club of Greenwich for their event on June 6th; a sign-up sheet was on the Bulletin Board. PETER UHRY told us that last year about 130 RMA hats were purchased and wondered if there were interest in also having a polo shirt with the RMA logo; he modeled a blue one made of Pima cotton that would cost about $30. Quite a few members raised their hands. There were also requests for hats, which can be reordered. PETER asked that all those interested in a shirt or hat should see him. STEVE BOIES told us about the 2015-2016 Greenwich Symphony season starting in the fall (Greenwichsymphony.org or 203-869-2664). Performances are expected to take place in the new High School Auditorium. Regular ticket prices will $35 but $30 for RMA members. A full subscription reduces the price even further to $26 per concert for RMA members. Brochures will be available at future meetings. He also invited members to attend the Sunday, June 14th Spring Musicale fund raiser for the Greenwich Symphony Chamber Players to be held at the Audubon Center starting at 5pm. The $100 admission covers food, drinks including wine, and great music. Call 203-637-4725 for information and reservations. The Players will also be performing a free concert at the Arts Council in the Greenwich Senior Center on Wednesday, June 22nd; advance reservations are required, however (call 203-862-6750). See STEVE for further details. TOM HEALY announced that the Melody Men will be giving a concert at Nathaniel Witherell tomorrow (May 21st), their next to last one this season; their finale will be at the RMA meeting later this month. He also proudly mentioned that the Melody Men have been asked to sing the National Anthem at Citi Field again, this time at 7pm, prior to a Mets-Padres game on Wednesday night, July 29th; the group ticket rate will be about $50 with about $20 for bus transportation. If interested, call TOM at 203-661-2954 ASAP. BERNARD SCHNEIDER tried to rally the troops to march with an RMA contingent at the Annual Old Greenwich Memorial Day Parade on Monday, May 25th; wear your RMA hat and meet at 9:30am at the corner of Sound Beach Avenue and Lincoln Avenue. Let BERNARD know if you will participate by calling him at 203-698-2558; you are welcome to bring along guests and family members. HORST TEBBE informed the members of a free concert by the Pomona College Glee Club to be held at the Fish Church in Stamford (1101 Bedford Street) at 7:30pm on Thursday, May 28th. BILL DYNAN explained that from now on, there will be an annual reading of the names of members who have deceased during the past year (a necrology report); it will be made at the meeting just before Memorial Day. A moment of silence was held for those who passed away this past year: HERBERT SCHWARTZ (7/15/14), ROWLAND HARRIS (7/25/14), CLYDE MOONIE (8/14/14), NICK ROBERTO (8/16/14), BILL OSGOOD (9/4/14), MICHAEL J. ## TODAY'S SPEAKER

Stuart Gibson is an international museum and cultural policy expert with close ties to the Hermitage, Russia's flagship museum that was founded in 1764 by Catherine the Great and which just celebrated its 250th anniversary. He was Director of UNESCO's Hermitage Museum Development Project for 10 years and is a founding member and currently Secretary of the Hermitage Museum International Advisory Board. With slides, he traced the history of St. Petersburg (the "Venice of the North"), built on swampland in the 18th century, and the structures and holdings of the Hermitage, which consist of over 3 million items, only 6% of which are on museum display at any time. He whetted everyone's appetite for a visit by showing and describing the magnificent structures and artwork, including some of the largest collections of many artists' works (e.g., Matisse, Rembrandt) as well as some of the most valuable pieces of art and sculpture in the world. It was one of the longer and more impressive presentations by RMA speakers, and could have gone longer; it held everyone's rapt attention. In addition to the 107 men present at the business meeting, there were 24 walk-ins for his talk. Mr. Gibson's excellent talk will soon be available on Vimeo via the RMA website:
