The Greenwich Retired Men's Association celebrated its Sixty-Fourth Annual Dinner at the Tamarack Country Club on Wednesday, November 14th, 2018. It was a well-attended, warm and cordial affair, thoroughly enjoyed by both members and guests.

JERRY SCHWENDEMAN was the Master of Ceremonies, he opened the event with a gracious introduction and welcome to all the attendees.

Prior to the meal, JIM BUTLER provided an invocation. BOB BISHOP led the gathering in the Pledge of Allegiance followed by TOM HEALY with the Star-Spangled Banner, accompanied by BOB MORGAN on piano.

Past RMA Presidents were duly recognized and those present were asked to provide a photo opportunity on the front stage.
