THE MELODY MEN—Everything Old is New Again

When trumpets all were mellow,
And every gal had one fellow
No need to remember when,
Cause everything old is new again.
Don't throw the past away
You may need it some rainy day.
Dreams can come true again,
When everything old is new again.

They're back from their Fall World Tour of the Greater Greenwich area -- even though it seems that they've never really gone too far away—and the RMA has them on May 23.

The Melody Men have been a prime community outreach group for the Greenwich RMA for 37 years. For the first 25 years, Bob Button was the Music Director. The group brings fun-filled choral performances to appreciative senior audiences throughout Fairfield County and beyond each spring and fall. Many of the Melody Men have been part of the group for over 20 years.

This year's spring schedule includes Edgehill, Nathaniel Witherell, the Greenwich Senior Center, Greenwich Adult Day Care, Greenwich Seniors, Sunrise Assisted Living, King Street Nursing Home, the Osborn, Greenwich Woods, Connecticut Health, and Waveny in New Canaan. In their busy schedule they always return to home base, performing for the RMA in the spring and at the Annual Fall Dinner. This time around the Business Manager and Booking Agent is Bob Luce and the accompanist is Valerie Cooke. The Music Director is Erf Porter, and the Associate Music Director is Win Adkins.

RMA members and their guests should arrive by 9:45 AM for our full meeting. The general public should plan to arrive at 10:45 AM. Meetings are held at the First Presbyterian Church, Lafayette Place, Greenwich. No Charge and No Reservations are required. Questions about any of the above, call Bernard Schneider, 203-698-2558; bgsesq@gmail.com.
