“Greenwich Library: Renovation Update & Future Plans”

Greenwich Library Director Barbara Ormerod-Glynn will share an update on the $18 million ReImagine Renovation Project of the Main Library, which is supported by contributions from individual donors as well as funding from the Town of Greenwich and State of Connecticut. The project is currently on budget and moving toward a year-end completion. She will also address the COVID-19 impact on current services and the anticipated future services made possible by the new spaces.

Ormerod-Glynn will be joined by:

- Michael Tribe, architect for the project, who will share the vision for the design, and how the spaces connect and intersect.
- Tom Heagney, Library Board President, who will describe the new spaces.
- Hank Ashforth, Chair of the Library Buildings and Grounds committee, who will share recent renovation progress and discuss the project’s acceleration.

Barbara Ormerod-Glynn has served as Greenwich Library Director since 2014. Previously, she was the Deputy Director for eleven years. During her tenure as Director, she led the Library to develop a new 2018-2022 Strategic Plan and the extensive planning process to create and execute the ReImagine Renovation Project. With over 2,000 programs and events per year, and a collection known for its depth and breadth, the Library seeks to serve as the cultural and intellectual crossroads of the community. Greenwich Library was again named a national five-star library by Library Journal for the 11th time. Prior to Greenwich Library, she held library positions at the Crestwood branch of the Yonkers Public Library and Columbia and Fordham universities, as well as library management positions at Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley.

Next Week: September 30, Hagar Hajjar Chemali, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Greenwich Media Strategies, LLC., Expert on foreign affairs and the Middle East. “A Closer Look at the Middle East: Key Developments, Insights, and Where Things are Headed.”
