Beth Evans

“Our Greenwich Environment: Looking to the Future for Our Children and Grandchildren”

Beth Evans, Director of Environmental Affairs for The Town of Greenwich, will speak about the future of Greenwich’s environment as it will impact our children and grandchildren, and our responsibility for working to insure their future health and wellbeing.

As Director of Environmental Affairs for our Town, Evans is responsible for the Conservation Commission and the Inlands Wetlands & Watercourses Agency. She is a professional wetlands scientist, field biologist, wildlife biologist, grandmother.

Previously Evans ran an environmental consulting business which she founded in 1988.

Evans holds a Master’s Degree in Regional Planning and a Master of Science in Geology from the University of Pennsylvania, and a BA in Biology from Cornell University. Evans lives in Bethany, Connecticut.

The event is open to the public, and attendees are encouraged to participate in a Q&A session following the presentation.

Our next speaker, on April 24, will be B.H. Barry, Fight Director and choreographer, on “Shakespearean Theater, Broadway, Opera and Ballet.”

*The Greenwich Retired Men’s Association offers a free program every Wednesday that is open to the public, both men and women; no reservations are required. Our social break starts at 10:40 am followed promptly by our presentation at 11:00 am. Programs are at the First Presbyterian Church, 1 West Putnam Ave. in Greenwich.
