Fred Camillo
“Greenwich: Knowing the Way. Showing the Way.
Leading the Way.”

At the April 3rd presentation of the RMA Greenwich First Selectman Fred Camillo will discuss how he is meeting the many challenges facing the Town of Greenwich. The public is invited to attend in person and via Zoom. Fred welcomes questions from the audience. To ensure that your question is posed, you are invited to submit questions in advance. Send your question to PeterEBerg@gmail.com.

Fred is a lifelong Greenwich resident who graduated from Greenwich High School in 1980. He is currently serving his third term as First Selectman after serving 11 years as the State Representative for the 151st District, and as Assistant Minority Leader. His professional experience includes being a small business owner, having been one of the founders of Greenwich Recycling Co., and working as a high school teacher, baseball coach, and real estate professional.

His community service includes serving the boards of the Greenwich Council of Boy Scouts, the Greenwich Baseball Foundation, the Greenwich Junior Babe Ruth League, the Greenwich Old Timer's Athletic Association, the Cos Cob Association, and Adopt-a-Dog. He also is an associate member of the Cos Cob Fire Police Patrol. He is a former Representative Town Meeting member, chair of the Board of Parks & Recreation, and the Republican Town Committee. His legislative and community work has earned him awards from the Uniform Professional Firefighters, the Cos Cob Fire Police Patrol, the Greenwich Council of Boy Scouts, the United States Humane Society, Stamford Republican Town Committee, the CT Votes for Animals Legislator of the Year, Adopt-A-Dog of Greenwich's first-ever Humanitarian award winner in 2021, and the Connecticut Italian-American Legislative Education Fund Caucus. He is a summa cum laude graduate of Manhattanville College, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and history and a Master of Arts degree in education.

Our next speaker, on April 10, will be Br. Guy Consolmagno, S.J., Director of the Vatican Observatory, on “When Science Goes Wrong: The Desire and Search for Truth.”
