Jennifer Homans, PhD.
“Mr. B: George Balanchine’s 20th Century”

Jennifer Homans is the author of Mr. B: George Balanchine’s 20th Century (2022), a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Circle Award. Her previous book, Apollo’s Angles: A History of Ballet (2010), is the first cultural history of ballet ever written. This book was a finalist for the National Books Circle Award and one of the N.Y. Times 10 Best Books of the Year. Professor Homans is the dance critic for The New Yorker magazine.

Ms. Homans was a professional dancer and performed with the Pacific North West Ballet before earning a B. A. at Columbia University and a PhD. in modern European history at New York University, where she is now a distinguished scholar in residence. She is the founding director of The Center for Ballet and The Arts in New York City.

As Ms. Homans has selected an interview format for her presentation we are pleased that Travis Milliman of the Greenwich Library will be collaborating with the RMA for this presentation. Travis is the performing arts librarian at Greenwich Library and will conduct the interview. In addition to his role at the library, Travis continues to work on new play development for the Bay Area Play Festival.

Our next speaker, on January 31, will be Vice Admiral Joanna Nunan, superintendent of the United States Merchant Marine Academy.

The Greenwich Retired Men’s Association offers a free program every Wednesday that is open to the public, both men and women; no reservations are required. Our social break starts at 10:40 am followed promptly by our presentation at 11:00 am. Programs are at the First Presbyterian Church, 1 West Putnam Ave. in Greenwich.
