PETER MALKIN

PUBLIC SERVICE: A CALLING

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.” (Gandhi). What energizes people to devote themselves to public service is a sense of possibility. It is not just a way of life, but a way to live life fully. Each of us, no matter our age or background or walk of life, has something to contribute to our community.

It is daunting to summarize either Peter Malkin’s business accomplishments or his public service. On the real estate side, he is the Chairman of the Board of Malkin Properties, Inc., a diversified nationwide real estate management, marketing, acquisition and construction management company, and a Principal in the Empire State Building and numerous other prominent properties.

He was founding Chairman of the Grand Central Partnership’s Business Improvement District, Governor of the Real Estate Board of New York, and recipient of awards and honors too numerous to mention.

But it is his involvement in Greenwich community affairs that merit our attention. He has been Vice Chairman of the Greenwich Center for the Arts, Founding President of the Greenwich Tree Conservancy, Founding Chairman of The Merritt Parkway Conservancy, Member of the Advisory Board of the Connecticut Trust for Historic Preservation, and a Member of the Nathaniel Witherell Home Advisory Committee. He has received the Greenwich Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Community leader Award, and been named the Greenwich Citizen of the Year by the Rotary Club of Greenwich.

And so, in the end, Mr. Malkin will share with us his personal experiences of community service, and his thoughts of what our future can be, if we give back to our community and country, that have given us so much.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Malkin graduated summa cum laude from Harvard College, and magna cum laude from Harvard Law School. A resident of Greenwich, he is married with 3 children and 10 grandchildren.

RMA members and their guests should arrive by 9:45 AM for our full meeting. The general public should plan to arrive at 10:45 AM. Meetings are held at the First Presbyterian Church, Lafayette Place, Greenwich. No Charge and No Reservations are required. Questions about any of the above, call Bernard Schneider, 203-698-2558; bgsesq@gmail.com.
