State Senator Ryan Fazio

“Creating a Brighter Future for Connecticut”

Ryan Fazio will discuss the challenges currently facing Connecticut, its state government, and the reforms needed to protect our community and make our state thrive for the future. He will speak on the state government's precarious fiscal situation, stagnant economy, high cost of living and tax burden. He will also address ways to improve public education and reform the state's 8-30g housing law.

A Republican, Ryan was elected to the Connecticut State Senate in a special election in August 2021, following the resignation of Democratic member Alexandra Kasser. He represents the 36th District which covers Greenwich and parts of Stamford and New Canaan.

Born in Connecticut and raised in Greenwich, Ryan is a graduate of the Greenwich public schools. After studying economics at Northwestern University, he chose to return to Connecticut and pursue a career in business. Ryan spent most of his career working in commodities markets, specializing in renewable energy. Currently, Ryan works at a growth equity firm that invests in small and medium-sized businesses and advises their management to help them grow.

Ryan has also been an active volunteer in the community, serving as a tutor in inner-city charter schools and as a volunteer for Meals on Wheels of Greenwich, among other organizations. Ryan served on the Greenwich Representative Town Meeting, representing District 12 and serves on the town's Energy Efficiency Committee.

Please Note: Attendees must show proof of vaccination and booster at the door for admittance. Masks must be worn at all times in the church.

Next week, March 23: Robert Henrey, lecturer on historical encounters between the West and Asian cultures. He is a former international tax and financial consultant. His presentation is entitled “China 1981.”
